

CESA Membership Application Form

To join Clean Energy States Alliance (CESA), please fill out the following pages with the information requested. For assistance or more information, please contact Maria Blais Costello at (802) 223-2554 x203.

Please select your membership category:

Full Member

Full members are states, cities, and other sub-national entities that administer public dollars for clean energy, as well as publicly owned utilities—provided that the utility makes funding available to the public for clean energy projects, market building, or related activities.

Category	Annual Renewable Energy Budget
<input type="checkbox"/> New Member	N/A
<input type="checkbox"/> Group Six	<$3 million/year
<input type="checkbox"/> Group Five	$3 million - <$ 9 million/year
<input type="checkbox"/> Group Four	$9 million - <$14 million/year

<input type="checkbox"/> Group One	>$30 million/year

Dues: The first year’s dues for New Members, regardless of size, are $10,000. The base membership starts at $10,000 (for Group Six Members) and is assessed based upon the specific size of the Member’s annual renewable energy budget. For a specific calculation of dues for your organization or more information, please contact Maria Blais at maria@cleanegroup.org or at (802) 223-2554 ext. 203.

Affiliate Member

Any public or nonprofit organization that is not eligible for CESA Core Membership can apply for CESA Affiliate Membership. Among the types of organizations that are eligible for CESA Affiliate Membership are NGOs, universities, economic development organizations, and technology transfer offices, as well as cities, counties, and states that do not have significant dedicated clean energy funding. Affiliates must be approved both by the CESA state member in which the entity is located, if applicable, and the CESA Board of Directors. Affiliate status is not open to private developers or businesses.

Dues: Affiliate Member annual dues are $2,500. (Membership fee waived for state agencies included in a CESA Core Member’s membership.)
